

English

Biography Verena Rogowski Becker

Brazilian - German Artist and Writer, formed in Full Degree-drawing and plastic arts (UFRGS), post graduate in the history of Rio Grande do Sul/society, politics and culture (FURG), Several individual and collective exhibitions, winners of two sculpture competitions.

The first competition was winning the monument to the Tanner of Estância Velha city in RS, the second for a trophy competitions of children's choirs of Novo Hamburgo city RS. Works in oil, acrylic, watercolor, montages and photography.

Participated in several exhibitions, have many works that was sold for galleries in China and European. Work as a art teacher and educational coordinator in education and culture departments in many cities: Santo Ângelo/RS, Campo Grande/MS, Estância Velha/RS, Novo Hamburgo/RS, São Lourenço do Sul/RS.

Was Secretary of education and culture of Estância Velha/RS between the years of 1996 and 2000. Made several trips to France and countries like Germany, Austria, Belgium, Slovenia, Indonesia, China, Thailand, South Africa, Vietnam, Guatemala and South American countries and Brazilian historical cities. Was the President of the MAPE-movement of Artists of Leicester for several years.

In writing won her first essay contest about Peace when she was 12 years of age. Published her first book with autonomous typography: "Windows of creativity" in 2006. Participated in various contests of poetry and short stories in which was awarded several times. Participated in "Anthologies writers Centre São Lourenço do Sul" and the collection of Poetry: "Women and Wings: Butterflies in verse", with various authors, book released in the 54th book fair in 2008 at Porto Alegre city - RS.

Released her latest book romance-fiction: "The mystery of Sepé Tiaraju" – Because this land had owners – in 2014.